The game and umpire schedule as well as the team names will be the next items released by the league office. "We are revisiting how we assign home plate umpires," Commissioner Hixson explained. "Expect some significant changes in 2008."

The SLW Front Office wishes to extend a thank you to Matt Endsley and Greg Presson for their recent work on the B.J. Alblinger Field at Lakefront Stadium. "Thanks to two of our veterans and favorite SLW members for working on the field," Hixson stated. "I think they are looking for excuses to get over and challenge each other to one race around the bases after another. Whatever, the case, we appreciate it."
